Subject: It's time to rally!

Ryan,

Today is the last day of the year. Your special year-end gift before midnight tonight is the fuel we need to power our efforts to defend your values in the next year.

Starting tomorrow, Americans face a critical decision between staying the course of the Founders—or of throwing away everything we've built in the last two hundred years. The voices of conservatives like you and me must be front and center in the debate.

Now is the time to rally!

Join the movement and advance your values into the next decade: https://secured.heritage.org/ 2019/end-of-year

Be a part of the movement that proves the power of our founding values. Activate your Heritage membership today and defend our values in 2020, when so much is at stake.

You are a constant reminder that our conservative principles are worth fighting for each and every day. Thank you for everything you do.

All the best,

Kay C. James
President

P.S. With so much at stake next year, we can't waste a single moment. Your gift before midnight tonight will advance your principles now, and for years to come: https://secured.heritage.org/ 2019/end-of-year
